Lawley Rises 12 Slots on Key National List

Buffalo-based agency moves to 57th in 2009-10

BUFFALO, NY July 26 2010 – Lawley Insurance, a top ranked full-service insurance broker in Buffalo, jumped 12 positions to No. 57 in the annual national listing in Business Insurance magazine, the insurance industry's leading periodical.

Lawley moved from 69th to 57th while more than half of the nation's top brokers dropped in the rankings.

This growth stemmed from several factors, including hiring experienced professionals, mergers and acquisitions and additional products and services.

"We have been fortunate to attract quality professionals and develop strong partnerships with clients, carriers, and our communities," said Managing Partner Bill Lawley, Jr. "As an organization we will continue to secure talent and expertise and provide innovative services that enhance the value we bring to our geographic regions and our customer base."

Lawley is a leading provider of insurance brokerage, risk management, and employee benefits services to organizations and industries with complex exposures of risk. These industries include construction/habitational, health care, public entities, automotive, manufacturing, not for profit, and wholesale/retail.
